

21 Menzies Dr, Pacific Paradise

Modern home feeling

It is without a doubt, this home is a little ripper and has been modernised to a high standard, making it highly desirable in so many aspects. It is a home for a range of people, from those wanting to move into a highly sought after area, to those wanting to downsize, family beginners, to those wanting to expand and capitalise. Stepping inside, one is greeted by a high raked ceiling and comfortable open planned living space and modern kitchen. A wall made for the adornment of picture memories, and natural light filling the entire house. Bedrooms that are comfortable and filled with light, yet a joy to relax and rest soundly.

This home is ready to move into and start your own journey, enjoying the lifestyle and the area. The property has room for multiple vehicles and side access to the generous back yard, room for a pool, garage and what you need to make it a green space to your desires.

Located within walking distance to the primary school, shops, restaurants, hospitality venues, medical suites, and minutes drive to the beach, airport, sporting venues and much more. The Sunshine coast lifestyle is still alive in the area and more and more people are recognising the true value of the northern suburbs from Maroochyore's CBD
