Another stand out feature is the land itself. At 721sqm it's one of the largest blocks in the area. High fences provide privacy and security. There's also off street parking for two vehicles, as well as side access for a boat or caravan. Concreting has been laid for a future pergola by the pool and there's room to build a carport or double garage. 250m walk to the esplanade, licensed surf club and buzzing café scene means everything within easy reach. A stand out home in one of the coasts last true beachside villages. Come see for yourself.
