Built in 2006 means this house has plenty to offer in the way of inclusions. High ceilings, open living spaces and good quality kitchen/bathrooms means some minor tweaks will transform this home into something really special. At the same time the condition is good enough that you could just as easily not lift a finger. The 454sqm block is fully fenced and offers secure side access for a boat or caravan. The covered rear deck is a great year round space catching plenty of winter sun and summer breezes. A stand out opportunity in an area rapidly growing in popularity.
