1 Second Ave, Marcoola

Walk to beach double header

A dual income property with long term tenants in place 10 minutes' walk to the beach does more than provide an instant solid return. Potential development options down the line and land banking this close to the ocean secures a financial future in one of Queensland's fastest growing regions.

Concrete block construction, and recently renovated internals to the house and granny flat offer a comfortable lifestyle to tenants, and minimal maintenance to the owner. Located within walking distance of public transport and expanding local shops/services means high ongoing rental demand.
